Dear Dr. Zerillo:

We are writing to commend you and your excellent teachers.

After reviewing the scholarship recipients for our incoming freshman class, we noticed that several of these students are from your school. To be offered one of these scholarships, a student must score very well on the entrance exam (upper 90th percentile) and excellent grades. These students achieved their excellence through their hard work and the diligence of your dedicated, professional, and inspiring teachers. We congratulate you and your teachers on their hard work and its results. We also commend your school's rigorous curriculum.

Congratulations to you, your teachers, and these fine students. We thank you for your dedication to high achievement. Please share our comments with all the faculty and staff of your school.

We look forward to welcoming these scholarship recipients and all your other students who will be among the members of the St. Francis Prep Class of 2020. Please continue to provide superior and inspiring education at St. Helen School.

Sincerely,

Brother Leonard Conway, O.S.F.
